Take a walk beside it with landscape historian (and BAHS board member) Jennifer Wilton and look for clues to its past from original pictures and plans and the pieces that still survive. You will leave with a fresh appreciation of the designers' ingenuity and intent. Free  the walk will occur rain or shine
Tuesday, November 27, 2018 	7pm Brighton Allston Congregational Church 404 Washington Street Brighton Center	New England Neon Come meet our newest local author Susan Mara Bregman, who is a photographer, writer, and long-term Brighton resident. Her newly published book "New England Neon" celebrates the style and exuberance of these landmarks of light. With dozens of original color photographs and informative text, the book takes readers from the shores of Lake Champlain to the tip of Cape Cod. Susan will talk about New England's neon heritage with a focus on local favorites like CITGO, Twin Donuts, and our neighborhood's very own Circle Cinema. Copies of the book will be available for purchase. Free
